SAY LAWYERS

Confessed Accident Fakirs Sentenced, Declaring Cases Were "Fixd" By Attornys.

(Special to The Evening World.)
WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Oct. 18.—
County Judge Platt to-day imposed sentences on Mrs. Mary E. Woods and her husband, Abbott H. Woods, who all over the country and who pleaded Judge Platt sentenced Mrs. Woods to the State prison at Auburn for two to three years. Woods was given three to five years at hard labor in Sing Sing prison.

The perjury was committed in Novembert, 1904. It was alleged tha vembert, 1904. It was alleged tha Woods secured a position with the New York City Railway Company as a conductor, and after he had been employed hine days, it was charged, his wife deliberately fell off his car.

Mrs. Woods sued under the name of "Mae" Herbert and swore she had never seen Woods before.

The cougle bave implicated two New York lawyers in the trolley swindle. They say the lawyers paid their expenses pending trial, after "fixing" the case. Indictments of the lawyers may follow.
